Mr. Thomas Blagden at President Cleveland's Former Summer Residence at Sarame Inn.

Washington society has happily not as yet aught the fever that now rages in Baltimore of entertaining itself with trolley

In the Monumental City the contagion from the North has taken hold with great force upon the stay-at-home contingent, and the streets and outlying districts through which the favorile lines of cars run are gay with frequent trolley parties. The main feature of such form of rapid movement ammement appears to the outsider to be muse. The trolley party making the greatest amount of noise seems to be the one voted the greatest success: As everytising in time comes to Washingon, the trolley party craze will of course to time reach here, and the citizens of both the fashtonable and unfashionable class will take hold and test it during the present

A trolley our has to be chartered and filled with the invited party. In many cases this party is a "butch treat" affair. But whichever way they are filled, whether by invitation or posting of the guests, they are run at the highest rate of speed over he thresuperated. Generally they are dec and in the most gorgeous minimer with are and bunning, with here and there their general appearance. Then each and my one of the tralley party is provided in a norm, upon which all the long power oble is expended as the car specificallying rough the streets or quiet country rouds.

An important feature of the annusement to exergised arises when here and there ing the way people stand waiting on the eet or run out imo the roadway frontily waving for the car to stop and take

ANACOSTIA NEWS.

A vacant house at Elvan and Stanton avenues, in Hillsdale, was destroyed by fire about half past six o'clock last evening. The damage to the property, amounting to $100, was covered by insurance. Elizabeth Chase was the owner of the baiding.

There is again talk of a new justice of the pester, owing to the confinement in St. Elizabeth's of Justice Carroll W. Snith. The new aspirants are William N. Fisher and Albert Richardson, both young local autorneys and real estate men.

An exciting runaway took place on Nichols avenue yesterday morning. The doubte team of Mr. Ware, of Prince George's county, dashed down the asylum hill at frightful speed. Near the foot of the hill the team collided with a heavy beer wagon, one of the horses striking its head against the tail-gate and falling senseless to the ground, the other animal stumbling over him.

ground, the other animal stumbling over him.

A boy who was in the wagon jumped out when the horses first started, and at-though thrown about ten yards, was not injured. It is feared the injured horse will have to be shot.

DUNRAVEN TO BE DINED

Swell Dinner to Be Given on W. K.

Vanderbilt's Yacht.

Everything Is to Smack of the Sea From the Tablecloth to Favors.

New York, Sept. 2 .- The announcement concerning the international racht racet posted at the New York Yacht Club, have not been changed, and it is said to be a certainty that the race-at least the first one-will be sailed on September 7. At the club vesterday it was said that no change had been made in any of the plans, and nothing new had been done.

A dinner to be given to Lord Dunrayen by the board of governors of the New York Club after the races are sailed, was being discussed yesterday. The dinner, so far as many of the details are concerned, is in an embryo form as yet. The owner will in all probability, be given on board W. K. Vanderbilt's yacht, the Valtant, in the bar-

her at Newport.
It will be an exceptionally elaborate affair. The table will have for a cloth a mat of woven seawed, and will be shaped like a radder. The reagrass will be woven in an artistic shape, and at the dinner so far as possible, see read will predominate. At the right of each guest, will be a dainty affair, recombing a cotal slell. When this he explored an oyster will be found sleeping in and senwater, lessing as if it was just from the testom of the ocean. Theefish will be one of the main dishes, and everything connected with the diener, even to the favors, is expected to stanck of the sea and seamer

As Lord Duntaven has not eignafied a time when he can aftered the dinner, owing to the work of loating after his yacht, all the details are problematical as yet.
